"THROUGH THE YEARS"

*I know this school
will always be,
a very special part of me.*

*Over the years
I know I've met,
a lot of friends
I'll never forget.*

*We've grown together
through the years,
and learned a lot
through all our fears.*

Commencement Highlights

Dr. Don Coleman

Graduation ceremonies were held on Sunday, May 25, 1986 for the Class of 1986. Dr. Don Coleman from NMSU was the guest speaker for this event. He gave a very intellectual and optimistic speech to the graduates. John Garlock was bestowed with the honor of valedictorian and Brenda Moncrief received saluatorian.

SENIOR CLASS WILLS AND PROPHECIES

SHELLY ALDRIDGE: I will my benchwarming ability to Jamie Cameron, Gwen Mountain, and Stacey Thompson. I also will my car to Tina Pinkerton.

DENNIS BACHMAN: I will my self control and clean mouth to Mrs. Fouch.

STEVE BYRN: I will my ability to study hard and get along with the teachers to anybody who wants it and my last pack of cigarettes to Kelly Hammer.

TAMMY CLARK: I will my ambassadorship of lower Bohemia and my ability to get along with Mark and Roger to DeeAnna Adkins; my knowledge of Bible Trivia to Lanskee 2 & 3 and also my spider leg-like eyelashes to Mrs. Kurth.

KENT EAGEN: I will the hair on my legs to Chris Rusk and my ability to grow hair all over my face to Jim Reeves.

JOHN GARLOCK: I will my awesomely superior basketball playing skills to whoever is dumb enough to want them.

APRIL BOEKE: To Scott Correll, I will my ability to get good grades, if he really wants them, and my ability to get my homework in on time. To Leanne Billington, I will my calm even temperament so she can get along with the vacuum cleaner as well as I do.

TAMMY LEDFORD: I will my big mouth to Tina Lowe for the track team, I will my leadership to Kim Stitzer, I will my ability to pump gas to Coach Hutton and Coach Perkins and I will my ability to drive to Dana Ledford.

KATHY LEWIS: I, Kathy Lewis, do hereby will my ability to speak fluent Spanish to Julie Zeigler and my ability to fake intelligent answers to next years Academic Bowl Team.

DAREN MILLER: I will my ability to take a joke to Mr. Davison and my ability to control my macho instincts to Brett Baker and Jim Reeves.

BRENDA MONCRIEF: I will my 30 foot bowler to Stacey Thompson, my ability to speak Spanish to DeeAnna Adkins, and my knowledge of Bible Trivia to Lanskee 2 & 3.

CHRIS OWEN: I, Chris Owen, will my cedar chest to Mr. Hutton (Gumbie).

KIM PATTERSON: I will my ability to throw the 12 pound shot put 10 feet to Brett Baker and to Kim Stitzer the ability to focus the camera.

EVA-MARIA PEIDELSTEIN: I will my angelic ability to tolerate Dennis Bachman to the teachers and staff of the Mid-America Nazarene College.

MARK REEVES: I will my outstanding attendance record and my ability to get to school on time and stay all day to next years seniors.

MATT REEVES: I, Matt Reeves, will my ability to get to school on time to the next Reeves in line. I also will my shop abilities to Mr. Hutton.

WENDY STUTSMAN: I will my abilities as a scorekeeper and to be able to get along with the coaches to the next scorekeeper.

ROGER THOMPSON: I will my ability to fight to Ricky Harrelson and his personality to DeeAnna Adkins.

DONNIE WHEELER: I will my ambassadorship to upper Bohemia to Scott Correll, my ability to slam dunk the basketball to Kim Stitzer and Gwen Mountain, my height to Tina Lowe and my ability to stay in track and not do anything in practice to Bert and Ernie.

MATT WILLIAMS: I will my ability to drive like a mad man to Mike Osborn, my height to Mike White and my good looks to Glenda Parsons.

SHELLY ALDRIDGE, after years of waiting for Scott to graduate from high school, went on to become an accountant for Correll Auto Sales.

DENNIS BACHMAN, former president of the S.A.D.D. organization, is now doing beer commercials with Bob Euker. Now, wherever Dennis and Bob go, they always say, "We must be in the front row!"

STEVE BYRN is no longer imitating Don King and is currently in the circus side show blowing air out of his eyes.

TAMMY CLARK, who has replaced Joan Rivers on the "Tonight Show" is still the only one laughing at her own jokes.

KENT EAGEN, now a Special Olympics coordinator, says he likes his job, but gets no respect from the people he works with.

JOHN GARLOCK gave up the piano to play lead guitar for Ozzie Osborne. He enjoys his everyday ritual of setting out Ozzie's meals.

APRIL BOEKE has a new hairstyle; she has replaced Cyndi Lauper and is the most unusual woman in show business.

TAMMY LEDFORD is currently teaching Biology at Brashear High and is still unable to spell algae.

KATHY LEWIS' hair was burned off in a Pepsi commercial, and now she is unable to use her curling iron. When asked, she said, "I'm lost without it."

DAREN MILLER has changed his name to Hickey and is currently hosting "Solid Gold". He is working on a book called 1001 WAYS TO GIVE A HICKEY.

BRENDA MONCRIEF is raising thoroughbred squirrels, using the money she made to build an indoor basketball court to practice her 30 foot slop shots.

CHRIS OWEN had his left arm insured by Lloyd's of London and has replaced Patrick Ewing as center of the New York Knicks.

KIM PATTERSON is married to Tie. They have little G.I. Jones' running around everywhere.

EVA-MARIA PEIDELSTEIN is now married to a chauvenist husband, is a homemaker and has three children. When asked how she felt about her life, she replied, "Where did I go wrong? I must have been brainwashed in America."

MARK REEVES received a dishonorable discharge from the Marines because he skipped out of Basic Training. He has taken over his father's mail route.

MATT REEVES and his wife Cheryl are trying to beat his parents record. They now have nine kids and are working toward a goal of twenty. Poor Cheryl!!

WENDY STUTSMAN: After all the years of on the job training at Brashear High, she is now the scorekeeper, manager, and part owner of the Harlem Globetrotters.

ROGER THOMPSON: After working many years as a carry-out boy at Hy-Vee, Roger saved up enough money to buy the Blue Oyster Bar. When asked how he liked it he replied, "I always knew my basketball follow through would come in handy."

DONNIE WHEELER: After many school board meetings, he finally got it passed to paint the tiger on the wall of the gym and is still perfecting it. He has also married Tina and they have the only midget in basketball who can slam dunk.

MATT WILLIAMS is now employed by Roger Thompson at the Blue Oyster Bar (as a dancer). After ten years he's still wearing his cowboy boots with his Don Johnson jacket.

MR. JAMES SCUDDER became rich after selling wreckage of the space shuttle which he found in his car motor.

MRS. DENISE BROWN is now a tour guide at Jefferson City since she had taken so many seventh grade classes there.

The Fifth grade class had some interesting experiences this year. They took a field trip to 1000 Hills State Park, a skating party, and were visited by Marty D'metryk. In the spring they attended a Children's Festival. During the whole year they were involved in creative writing. After they had written the stories, they put them in books that they had made themselves.

The traditional Fifth and Sixth grade games were played on January 19. This year the teams were co-ed because of a shortage of girls. With help from their coaches, Donnie Wheeler and Kent Eagen, the Fifth grade worked up an early lead. The strong willed Sixth graders fought back with the help of their coaches, DeeAnna Adkins and Dana Ledford. Even with the help from the coaches, the Sixth grade could not catch the Fifth grade as they went on to win the games. Both teams showed good sportsmanship as they displayed their basketball talents that were closely watched by the referees, Brett Baker and Chadd Lamason.

Fifth Grade Coaches: Kent Eagen and Donnie Wheeler.

Sixth Grade Coaches: DeeAnna Adkins and Dana Ledford.

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

The Letterman's Club consisted of 37 members sponsored by Coach Tony Perkins and Coach Geoff Hutton. The members of the club sold coupon books as money making project, which was used for the purchase of sweats for the Basketball teams. They took a bus to Hernes Arena in Columbia to watch 3A & 4A Basketball Championships, on March 22, 1986. Coach Perkins was responsible for reestablishing this club which consisted of Freshman on up to Seniors.

Making Precious Moments Better

Elected president and vice president for the 1985-86 school year were Donnie Wheeler and Matt Gerhold. Various activities and events have been conducted throughout the school year. Some of these activities included a Halloween Dance and a Homecoming Dance. With the proceeds from these activities, the Student Council bought a video camera to be used for school functions. Sponsors for this group were Mr. Davison and Mrs. Kruth.

BEST COSTUMES

Ashlee Frazier (Right) - 2nd Prize

A Halloween dance, sponsored by the Student Council, was the first dance of the school year. This creative happening was on October 26 and was held in the Music room. Prizes were awarded to the creature with the best costume. First prize was a walk-man radio and free passes were awarded to both first and second place winners for the Homecoming dance.

Santa, the Mechanic Fanatic

Even though the Christmas Program was postponed due to poor weather, it was a big success. Directed by Sheila Benda and music supplied by Sheri Gittens, the Kindergarten and First Grade started the program with Jingle Bells and Santa Claus is Comin' to Town. Next, the Second, Third, and Fourth graders combined their singing talents to perform two songs. Promptly after the songs, the Sixth grade prepared the stage for the Christmas Play "Santa, the Mechanic Fanatic." All the kids worked very hard to bring this play together. Following the play, the Fifth grade concluded the program by singing Silent Night.

High Class Moments

"I'll Always Want You Near."

When I look
At your face,
I know it's you
I can't replace.

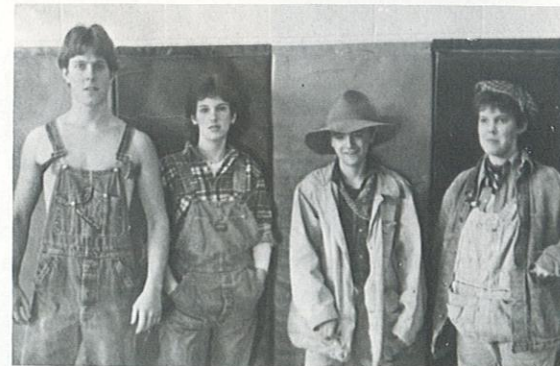

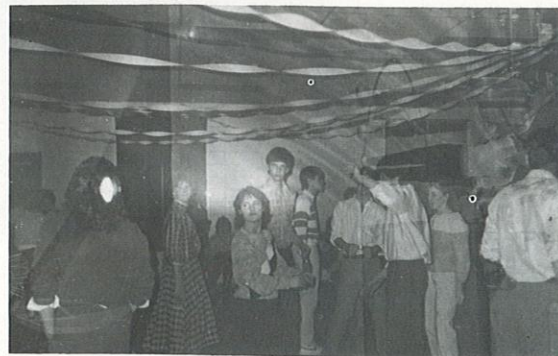

What I see
Amazes me,
And I know
We're meant to be

When you kissed me,
I knew it was right.
I feel so in love,
When you hold me tight.

Loving you
Is so great,
And I know
Our love won't wait.

When you whisper
In my ear,
I know I'll always Want you near.

Eva-Marie Peidelstein

Eva-Marie Peidelstein, an exchange student from Truan Austria, an industrial town slightly larger than Kirksville, MO, arrived in MO in July to spend a year with the Duane Patterson family. Eva comes from a family of nine, which includes 3 girls and 4 boys. Eva's hobbies included reading, writing, working with small children, pen pals and traveling while her interests in the United States were American literature, language, customs, politics, and Christmas tree farms. Eva remarked about her likes and dislikes in America by saying "I enjoy living in a rural area and learning new things every day. I haven't seen much of the U.S. yet, but I sure like NEMO. What particularly appeals to me is that there seems to be so much open space. (I don't think I'll ever want to live in a city again.) What I really like best about being here is that I've met so many, kind generous, caring, fun people who have been going out of their way to make me feel comfortable."

"Cherish the Night"

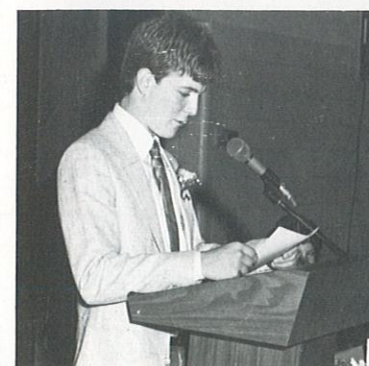

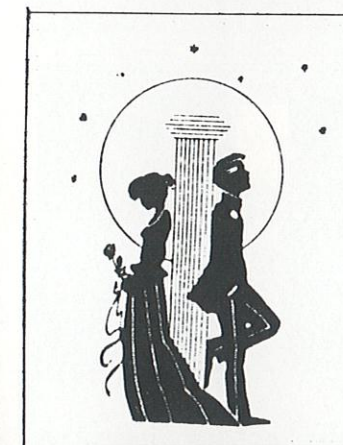

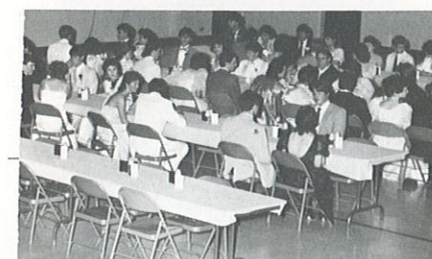

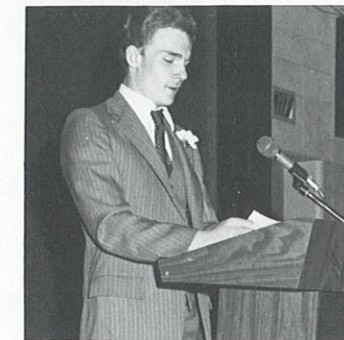

JOHN GARLOCK - APRIL GOEKE

On April 19, 1986 at 6:30 p.m. the 1985-1986 Junior Senior Prom "Cherish The Night" began. Justin Lamason gave the Invocation after which the banquet began. Soon after the banquet, Matt Gerhold welcomed everyone to the Prom. Tammy Clark then gave an acceptance speech on behalf of the Senior Class. Brett Baker then read the prophecies of the class and Donnie Wheeler presented the Senior Class Wills.

Following the banquet, everyone enjoyed the music provided by "MEGAFORCE" including the administration. During the dance, John Garlock and April Goeke were announced King and Queen.

Through Music

PTS Moments

Displays from the Art, Music, and Industrial Arts Departments were held in conjunction with the PTS meeting in March. Mrs. Anita Story, Art Instructor, displayed high school students work that consisted of chalk and pencil pictures, oil and acrylic paintings. Mrs. Geoff Hutton, Industrial Arts Instructor, displayed several wood projects that had been completed throughout the school year. Some of the projects were cabinets, chests, and chairs. Also during the evening, an enjoyable music concert was held under the direction of Miss Sheila Benda.
