WENDY BAKER: Since there is so much athletic ability to be willed from others, I'll just keep my over abundance of it. The only other things that I have to offer are my friendship and ability to stick with school. These things I will to all of you. Oh, one more thing, Mr. Kruzich can have my "Ferris Beuller's Day Off" t-shirt since he likes it so much.

GELANA BURESS: I, Gelana Buress, will the following: to Renee Darnel, I will my catching ability and catchers equipment (good luck getting the sweat-caked sand patties out of the mask and helmet); to Charity Sykes, I will all of my sprained ankles and my ability to walk down the locker room steps while staying on my feet; and lastly, to the murderer of Cord Steele Hettinger (our beloved egg son) I will all funeral expenses, one slightly used egg cradle, a half box of pampers, and one can of formula. Please make check payable to Dennis and Gelana Hettinger.

TRUDI DAVIS: I will my ability to keep my mouth shut when it's none of my business to Amy Barnes. As an unlicensed driver, I will my ability to reach my destination without the aid of a license, vehicle, or friends to Jeff Michaels. I will my ability to stay in a good mood for longer than five minutes to Travis James and Coach Kruzich. HEATHER ELSEA: I, Heather Elsea, will my ability to break up and stay broken up to Julie and Travis, my ability to keep my temper under control to Travis James, my ability to buy a can of pop without taking out a loan to Jeff Michaels, my ability to walk through the hall without scraping my nose on the ceiling to Chris Rusk and my safe driving ability to Jeff Rumerfield.

JANA GARLOCK: As a cheerleader, I will my ability to be on time for the start of the boys basketball game to Dawn Miller; to "Steph Beach", I will the ability to keep control when Chadd Lamason is around. I also will my ability to "sit-and-spin" to Mrs. Kurth.

WENDY BAKER- The first woman president and has never broke a promise.

GELANA BURESS- Is still looking for the perfect man, but Chuck keeps callin'.

TRUDI DAVIS- Has climbed the corporate ladder and is now the Manager of Deli Works, but still rides the school bus to work every day.

HEATHER ELSEA- Is now the secretary for Jim and Tammy Bakker and is getting them on the road to recovery.

JANA GARLOCK- Made use of her long legs by becoming a Radio City Music Hall Rockette.

DENNIS HETTINGER- Has taken over Sly Stallone's position as RAMBO with his 11 kids as stage hands.

Senior Wills

DENNIS HETTINGER: I, Dennis Hettinger, being of sound mind and superb body, will the following: to Travis James, a tape recording of "If I can't do it, my Dad will" so he won't lose his voice; to Matt Osborn, I will the ability to run 2 laps under 3:00 minutes and my last pack of Certs; to Cindy Byrn, my pair of black acid-wash Pepe's and all my Guess clothing; to Chris Rusk, I will all the expenses of a skin graft.

DUAYNE HOUSMAN: I, Duayne Housman, also will to Matt Osborn my running ability. He might qualify for the Special Olympics. I will my Northern gum boots to Shawn Rusk; to Coach Kruzich and Coach Hutton, I will the ability to say, "It's Easy."

CHADD LAMASON: I, Chadd Lamason, will 6 inches of my height to Coach Kruzich so he will finally reach the 5 foot level. I also will to Coach my ability to get along with you know who! To Bert and Ernie, I will a new nickname that doesn't come from Sesame Street; to Jeff Rumerfield, my ability to never get hurt (What will it be next, Jeff?) to Chris Rusk, the skin off my face; to Cindy Reeves, my ability to be on time or even close to being on time, just once; and last and also least, to Travis James, I would will my ability to walk like a stud, but he already does. Also to the stud, I will my ability not to look at my bulging muscles all the time.

GRACE MCCARTNEY: I will my abilities to stay calm in a sticky situation to Mrs. Southard. I will my ability to stay out of ISS to Chad Ferry and Jeff Michaels. I will my ability to get along in Mrs. Southard's class to my sister, Stephanie McCartney. I will my ability to come to school more often to Jeff Love, and my ability to stay awake in class to Troy McClanahan.

DARRIN MIHALOVICH: I, Darrin Mihalovich, will to Geoff Hutton, the ability to get a broken glass out of a sink without incurring a major surgery. To Chadd Lamason, my hands on the wheel, not on my date. Maybe that accident will teach you to behave! To Travis James, my left ear because it doesn't have any holes in it.

JULIE MOUNTAIN: I, Julie Mountain, leave to Dusti Mihalovich, my inherited driving ability. To Bob Crawford and Shawn Rusk, I will my vast experience on four-wheelers and to Jeff Michaels and Chad Ferry, my ability to come to school more than one day a week and stay all day.

DENA PATTERSON: I, Dena Patterson, being of sound mind and body, will my dictation ability to Julie Williams, so she can get past a 40 in shorthand. To Dennis Hettinger, I will my ability to handle more than ten kids at one time; you're going to need it!

STACEY PLATTE: I, Stacey Platte, will the following: my ability to dribble in bounds to all basketball players; my moodiness to Mrs. Norman; my ability to be Chadd Lamason's best friend to Dawn Miller; and to Jeff Rumerfield I will my ability to drive on the correct side of the road; to my good buddy, Chadd Lamason, I will you my controlled temper; and last but not least, I will my Laughlin Pavilion bag to Jana Garlock and Nancy Rigdon so you can fight over it.

CINDY REEVES: I, Cindy Reeves, being of not so sound mind and body will the following: to my buddy Dawn Miller, I will my ability to comb my hair after curling it and continued success in jockeying her own hurdles; to the bossy twins, Dusti Mihalovich and Ashlee Frazier, I will sweatshirts with complete sentences on them. I will my ability to smile, especially when things are going well, to Wendy Hickey. I will Chadd Lamason my ability to think for myself, to get dates that my mom likes, and to hold in my natural gases when necessary; and to my best buddy Nancy Rigdon, I will my ability to run out on the basketball court--not roll!

NANCY RIGDON: I, Nancy Rigdon of sound mind and body, will the following: to my tweeter buddy, Ashlee Frazier, I will the ability to take a joke and a ponytail for the right side of her head; to Dawn Miller and Jeff Michaels, the ability to crack and eat an egg without thinking about their lost loved one; to my fellow classmate, Stacey Platte, I will my ability to keep my rings on my fingers at all times no matter where I am at; to my best friend, Cindy Reeves, I will my ability to get ready for work in ten minutes and still look beautiful; and last, but not least, I will to my good friend Cindy Byrn, my fresh breath and a lifetime supply of breath freshner for Tim's sake.

JEFF RUMERFIELD: To Matt Osborn, I leave my chorus folder, my smelly high-top shoes, and all the Coke cans in my locker.

CHRIS RUSK: To the hyperactive twins, Jeff Michaels and Clint Allen, I will the following: to Jeff, the ability to sit quietly without performing an Indian Pow-Wow on the tables in Mrs. Kurth's class; to Clint, I will this advice: shut-up for a minute . . . just one minute, please; to Shawn, my one and only brother--thank God-I will my ability to speak properly without sounding as if I'm wearing a muzzel. I'm afraid Neanderthal grunting went out years ago, Shawn.

STACEY PLATTE- The KPD has hired Stacey Platte as their first human bull horn.

CINDY REEVES and NANCY RIGDON- are now joined at the hip after all the years of being together and are wondering if they can be surgically separated.

JEFF RUMERFIELD- Went AWOL and jumped ship but all's well because Mitsubishi company has hired him as a crash dummy.

CHRIS RUSK- He is now the Fashion Consultant/Manager of the L.A. Lakers.

NOTES

Do you feel it is an advantage or disadvantage going to a small school?

Shawn Rusk

I'd say it is an advantage. It's easier for me to pass. The teachers pay more attention to the students.

I feel it is an advantage because teachers seem to care and smaller classes give you the ability to learn more.

Radonna Williams

Dawn Miller

Definitely an advantage! The student-teacher ratio makes it an advantage. You get to know everyone which results in more friends.

NOTES

Amy Barnes

BHS is fun and has good faculty. It is a clean and drug-free school. I feel the principal has good control and I like going here.

How would you describe BHS?

Dusti Mihalovich

BHS is small but everyone's really close and you know everyone.

Ken Maxey

BHS is a very small school with a personal touch given by all the faculty and administration providing a more in-depth and interesting education making school days more exhilarating.

NOTES

Do you think weighted classes are a good idea?

Renee Darnel

Yes, because if more credits are given for harder classes then you could get your credits faster.

Shera Baker

Yes, because harder classes should be rewarded instead of taking the easy way out.

Beth Snyder

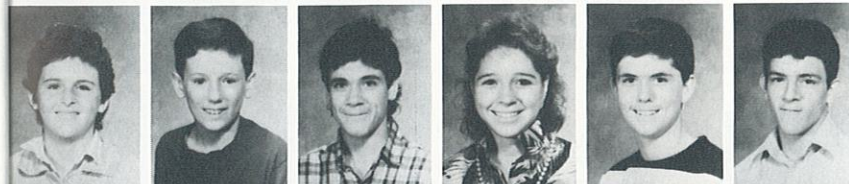

Yes, because harder classes should require harder work to get your credits.

The Student Council began a new school year under the supervision of Principal, Terry Morrow and President Cindy Reeves. Their main objective was to make the school a place for the student body to be proud of. This goal was achieved by the Council sponsoring dances and T-shirt and sweatshirt sales, which all proved to be very successful.

Promoting issues of drinking and driving were the theme of the 1987-88 SADD chapter. An assembly was held the week of prom with Officer Bluflicke, a state patrolman, who showed a video to the student body concerning drinking related accidents followed by a skit depicting the effects caused by a drunk driver.

Christmas Dance

The 1987 Christmas king and queen royalty went to Chadd Lamason and Jana Garlock. Prince and princess went to Jason Garlock and Angie Snowbarger. To celebrate the Christmas holiday, a dance was held on the evening of December 11. The music room was decorated in bright red and green colors to bring out the joy and cheer of the Christmas spirit. Many teachers, as well as students, participated in this unforgettable event. The Christmas Royalty is a new idea that hopefully will develop into tradition.

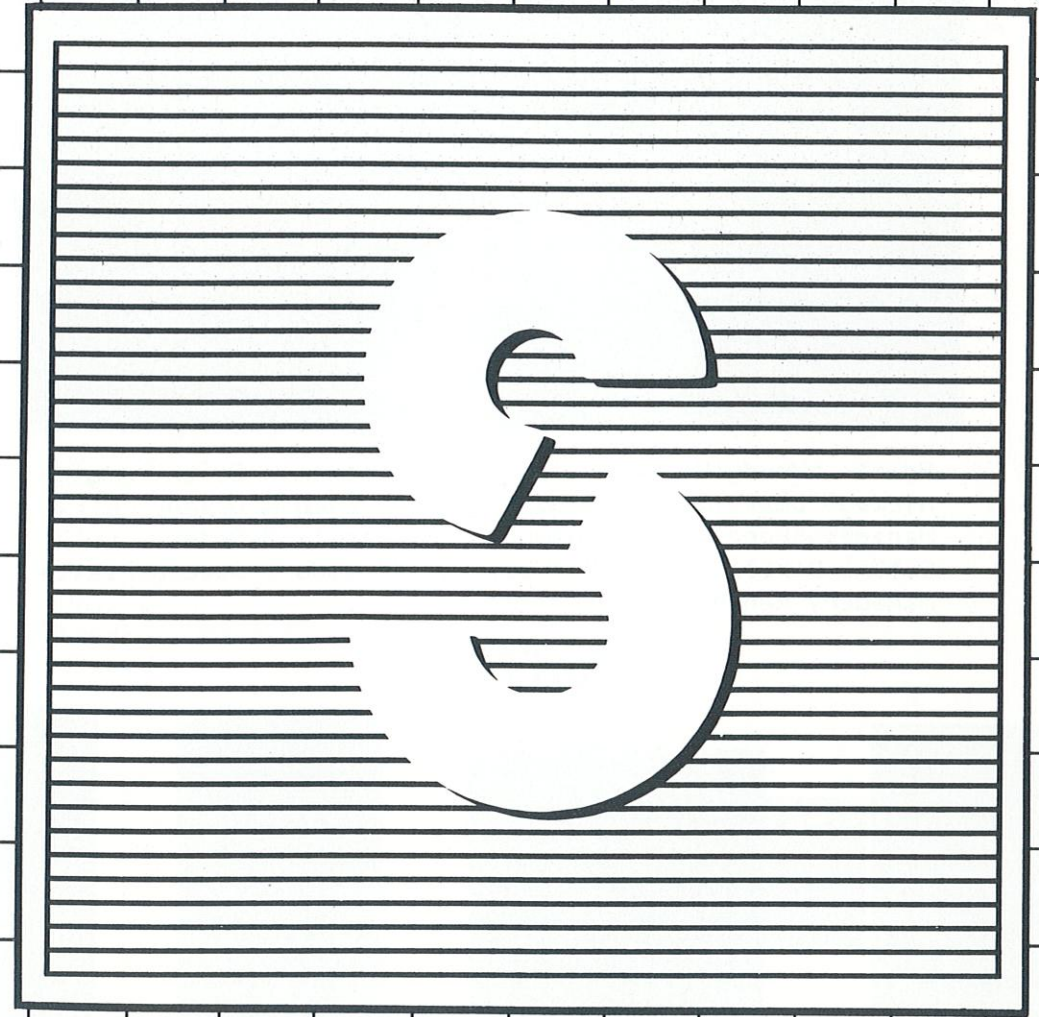

Candlelight Christmas

Christmas Program

On December 17, 1987, the Brashear Candlelight Christmas concert was presented under the direction of Mrs. Rebecca Ahern. Various forms of entertainment were performed from a comical rendition of the Twelve Days of Christmas to a tranquil candlelight closing by the high school chorus.

HOMECOMING EXPRESSIONS

BHS celebrated a victorious 1987-1988 Homecoming on February 12. "Wipeout" is exactly what the tigers did to the Atlanta Hornets. Winners of the traditional door posters were 1st place to the Freshmen, 2nd place to the Sophomores and third place to the 8th grade. At half time of the boys game, the royalty was crowned. King Shawn Rusk and Queen Cindy Whitton reigned over the festivities of the evening with Prince Travis Gregory and Princess Tracy Darnel. After the games, Student Council hosted a Homecoming/Valentines Dance with the musical entertainment provided by KTUF.
