Class Prophecy

I wandered into the forest one dreary night at twelve.
 A witch, over her bubbling cauldron, was chanting to the elves
 A prophecy of this Class of '51, which was really absurd.
 Now I shall repeat to you exactly what I heard.

Donnie Person and John Scott will be head mechanics at Burdmans, driving Buicks instead of wrecks.

At the Sears and Roebuck store, Richard Ross and wife, the former Evelyn Hiatt, are shopping for their daughter's prom formal. The head clerk, Margaret Patton, proudly shows a diamond and picture of a handsome man. (Delvin Truitt).

Who would be at Williamsville but Avis Dunham running her "Nursery Home" and her children. Bob Summers is the proud "Papa."

Kansas City is the site of Barbara May and Bob Payne's thriving business, "The Big-Little Shoe Shop."

On the outskirts of Kansas City is, "Bobby Moncrief's Textile Factory." Bobby is helping Mary Ellen Cusick design a new and different T-Shirt for snails.

Glenn Ross and Harold Smith are just sitting around singing and spitting tobacco (saving their teeth) waiting for their old age pension.

The old witch is chanting that Betty Vancil will be a missionary in China but in October will return home to her husband and son, Alan Jr.

Richard Williams is to win the title of the world's fastest shoeshiner. He can't afford a very good stenographer so will settle for Howard Platz.

In the police station at Edina, two little lost twins that look like their mother, Shirlene Morehead. Oh excuse us it's Mrs. Robert Killday.

G. A. Lyons is co-star in a movie, "The Nine Lines," but he took sick right in the middle of a line (telephone line) and was unable to finish his task. Sara Smith, the director, has suddenly turned gray headed over the matter.

Peggy Lindquist has finally found a millionaire, is happily married and spending her third million crusing around in their Cadillac. Bill Rummerfield is her faithful chauffeur.

Bill Crawford is in the Navy Reserve. Girls are scarce for the rest of the men when Bill is around.

Kelley is to be a lawyer, defending the guilty because he knows how it feels to have someone back of you.

Dorothy and the little Persons are waiting for Bill to come home from work.

Jack Sallade is trying to secure a patent on his latest invention, a magnet to draw his classmates of '51 together.

Joyce Hamilton has worked up to head finger print expert in the F. B. I. at Washington.

Marilyn Lancaster is still patiently waiting until our last breath so she can undertake to take us under.
