2007 Homecoming

Experience the Orange Crush! Homecoming 2007 was an outstanding success. The students enjoyed games and activities during the day, while the basketball players and cheerleaders prepared for their performances on Friday night. The rest of the school body held their breath to see who the new King and Queen would be. Consider yourself ORANGED.

“I Love You More With Every Breath” was the theme for the 2007 BHS Prom. The festive prom atmosphere started with the Grand March, continued with the formal Prom dance, and finished at Leisure World for the after-prom activities. Seth Wheeler and Kimberly Esea were crowned 2007 King Kale Moore and Queen Kellie Primmer. The junior class is already working to make Prom 2008 as big as a success as this year’s event.

Once again, the 2007 BHS After-Prom provided a drug-free alternative event for party-goers to continue to have fun and enjoy the junior-senior prom. The late evening event, which took place at Leisure World and was organized by parents, provided games, prizes, and a $100 bonus for all students that stayed the entire night.

Leadership, scholarship, character and service. These basic tenets are the cornerstones to the National Honor Society. The 2006-2007 NHS members exemplified these characteristics by performing hundreds of hours of community service in the school (by helping with tutoring and the after-school program) as well as the community at-large (by ringing Salvation Army Bells and visiting the elderly.) Due to their committment. NHS represents the best and brightest that BHS has to offer.

Undefeated

Christina Scudder, Bridget Clarkson, and Tyler Killen confer on an answer.

The 2007 Academic Bowl team experienced phenomenal success. Junior Josiah Belzer was the leading scorer while leading the AB team to an undefeated record and a conference championship. At districts, the team came away with a 2-2 record for the day which was good enough for 3rd place. Despite losing three strong players in Bridget Clarkson, Tyler Killen and Tyler Blacke due to graduation, the Tigers return a quality nucleus that should again battle for a conference championship.

Brandon Gordon, Caroline Slavin, Tyler Killen and Josiah Belzer await the question.

Stephanie Linhart, Ashton Wolter, Tabitha Killen and Jay Scudder double check the answer.

The junior high Academic Bowl team, under the direction of Coach Mike Killen, swept through the conference on their way to the undefeated conference championship. The team members gained valuable experience and a winning attitude that will help them compete at the high school level.
