SPORTSMANSHIP

In the United States we possess the freedom of self expression. This freedom is something which is to be respected not abused. Paper airplanes, booing, and pennies tossed on the floor have no place in interscholastic contests. Too many good officials are hanging up the whistle rather than take the abuse from coaches and fans. We have contracted good officials for this tournament. I ask your help in preventing the premature retirement of these HUMAN authorities.

WELCOME

Welcome to the 1968 Brashear Invitational Basketball Tournament. Every effort has been made to make your visit enjoyable and worth while. For the players, four dressing rooms have been provided, each equipped with modern facilities. For the spectators the local PTA has prepared a varied menu for your snack time in the dining room. Food and drink in the dining room only. No smoking in building. The bleachers will hold 600.
